MAYA S. SAXENA

Ms. Saxena, co-founder of the firm, regularly represents institutional investors in shareholder actions involving breaches of fiduciary duty and violations of the federal securities laws. She is a frequent speaker at educational forums involving public pension funds and advises public and multi-employer pension funds on their options for addressing fraud-related losses suffered in their pension portfolios. She currently serves as Chair of the Asset Forfeiture committee of the Badge of Honor Memorial Foundation, seeking to recover forfeited funds for the benefit of families of law enforcement officers slain in the line of duty.

Prior to forming Saxena White P.A., Ms. Saxena was the Managing Partner of the Florida office of one of the nation's largest securities litigation firms, where she successfully directed numerous high profile securities cases. Ms. Saxena gained valuable trial experience before entering private practice, employed as an Assistant Attorney General in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. As an Assistant Attorney General, Ms. Saxena represented the State of Florida, its agencies and officers in civil cases at the appellate and trial level, and prepared amicus curiae briefs in support of state policies at issue in state and federal court cases. Ms. Saxena also represented the Florida Highway Patrol and other law enforcement agencies in civil forfeiture trials.

Ms. Saxena has been instrumental in recovering hundreds of millions of dollars for defrauded shareholders including cases against Sirva Inc. ($53.3 million recovery), Helen of Troy ($4.5 million settlement), Sunbeam (settled with Arthur Andersen LLP for $110 million - one of the largest settlements ever with an accounting firm - and a $15 million personal contribution from former CEO Al Dunlap), and many others.

Ms. Saxena graduated from Syracuse University summa cum laude in 1993 with a dual degree in policy studies and economics, and graduated from Pepperdine University School of Law in 1996.

Ms. Saxena is a member of the Florida Bar, and is admitted to practice before the U.S. District Courts for the Southern, Northern and Middle Districts of Florida, as well as the Fifth and Eleventh Circuit Courts of Appeal. Ms. Saxena was recently recognized in the South Florida Business Journal's "Best of the Bar," as one of the top lawyers in South Florida.

JOSEPH E. WHITE III

Mr. White, co-founder of the firm, has represented shareholders as lead counsel in major securities fraud class actions and merger litigation nationwide. He is currently directing the prosecution of several high profile cases, including cases against Bank of America, Harmony Gold, Aracruz Cellulose S.A., Sadia and other significant financial frauds. Mr. White is also representing lead plaintiffs in other front-page cases, including Lehman Brothers and Washington Mutual.

He has successfully settled cases against numerous publicly traded companies, yielding multi-million dollar settlements, including: Cent. Laborers' Pension Fund v. Sirva, Inc., ($53.3 million plus corporate governance improvements), In re Catalina Marketing Corp. Securities Litigation ($8.5 million), In re Helen of Troy Securities Litigation ($4.5 million), In re Advanced Neuromodulation Systems, Inc. Securities Litigation ($3 million), and In re Mikohn Gaming Corp. Securities Litigation ($2.8 million for Section 11 class – a recovery of 63% of the Section 11 damages). Mr. White's efforts also yielded multimillion settlements in actions against: UniCapital Corp., Hamilton Bancorp, Profit Recovery Group, AES Corp., Tropical Sportswear International Corp., and AFC Corp.

Along with advising public and union pension funds on securities law matters, Mr. White has also assisted shareholders in achieving equitable treatment in minority shareholder buy-out actions and derivative actions achieving meaningful corporate governance reform. Mr. White's clients include multi-billion dollar private investment funds, union pension, annuity and welfare funds, as well as municipal and county public pension funds.

Mr. White regularly lectures on topics of interest to pension trustees, including "The Role of Public Pension Funds in Corporate Governance," "The Benefits of Portfolio Monitoring for Public Pension Funds" and "Tools for Assisting Pension Fund Trustees in Monitoring Securities Litigation." Mr. White is an Advisory Board member and educational lecturer for the Florida Public Pension Trustees Association.

Mr. White earned an undergraduate degree in Political Science from Tufts University before obtaining his Juris Doctor from Suffolk University School of Law. Before concentrating his practice in securities fraud, Mr. White represented national insurance companies in pursuit of fraudulent claims from the initial investigations and denial of claims through trial. Mr. White is a member of the bar of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and the State of Florida, as well as the United States District Courts for the Southern, Middle and Northern Districts of Florida, and the District of Massachusetts. Mr. White is also a member of the United States Circuit Courts of Appeal for the First and Eleventh Circuits.

Mr. Jones' practice has focused on class action litigation, including securities class actions, consumer class actions, and corporate derivative litigation for nearly 15 years. Before joining Saxena White, P.A. Mr. Jones was a partner at one of the nation's leading class action law firms, and has actively litigated class actions on both the plaintiff and defense sides since 1996.

Some of his recent class action victories, settlements, arguments, and lead and co-lead counsel positions while at Saxena White include: In re Bank of America Corp. Securities, Derivatives, Employee Retirement Income Sec. Act (ERISA) Litigation, 2010 WL 3448194 (S.D.N.Y., August 27, 2010) (lead derivative counsel) (defeating motions to dismiss); West Palm Beach Police Pension Fund v. Collins Capital Low Volatility Performance Fund II, Ltd., 2010 WL 2949856 (S.D.Fla., July 26, 2010) (argued) (prosecuting to obtain recovery for class in Madoff fraud); In re Sadia, S.A. Securities Litigation --- F.R.D. ---, 2010 WL 2884737 (S.D.N.Y., July 20, 2010) (argued) (certifying class); Rosky ex rel. Wellcare Health Plans, Inc. v. Farha, 2009 WL 3853592 (M.D.Fla., 2009). (argued) (defeating multiple motions to dismiss, sweeping corporate governance implemented, and agreement by Company to sue its former executives); Cent. Laborers' Pension Fund v. Sirva, Inc., 2006 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 73375 (N.D. Ill. 2006) (lead counsel) ($53.3 million settlement); In re Cablevision Systems Options Backdating Litigation, (Supreme Court of New York, Nassau County, June 2008) (Co-Lead Counsel) (See Options Grant to Dead Exec Leads to $34.4 Million Settlement, Wall Street Journal, June 5, 2008); In re Alltel Corp. Shareholders Litigation, Case No. 07-6406 (Pulaski County, Arkansas) (Co-Lead Counsel) (extensive corporate governance changes implemented); In re Friedman's, Inc. Securities Litigation, 2005 WL 2175936 (N.D. Ga. 2005) (defeating motions to dismiss; 4 partial settlements totaling $14.9 million settlement in 2008).

Mr. Jones also has extensive experience prosecuting complex corporate derivative actions. Notably, he was one of the lead counsel in the widely reported case involving FPL Group, Inc. (NYSE:FPL), a large public utility holding company. After nearly three years of intense litigation, which included reported victories on Defendants' motions to dismiss (Klein v. FPL Group, Inc., 2004 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 919, 2004 WL 302292 (S.D. Fla. 2004)), and key discovery motions (Klein v. FPL Group, Inc., 2003 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 19979 (S.D. Fla. 2003)), eight FPL executives, and their insurer, returned $22.25 million in compensation to the company. (See FPL Group to receive $22.25 million settlement in shareholder suit, Knight-Ridder/Tribune Business News, August 14, 2004). The settlement was a groundbreaking recovery because it implemented sweeping corporate governance provisions at FPL, and at the time was the largest amount of money ever returned to a public company by members of its management in an executive compensation lawsuit.

Mr. Jones is also the creator and author of The PSLRA Nugget, a well known blog which provides cutting edge information and analysis on recent securities class action opinions.

Regular Nugget subscribers and readers include hundreds of attorneys from the plaintiff and the defense bars, the Securities and Exchange Commission and other government agencies, economic analysts, D&O insurance companies, university professors, Fortune 500 general counsel, pension funds, and national news organizations.

Prior to practicing at his previous law firm, Mr. Jones was an attorney with a prominent corporate defense firm in St. Louis, Missouri. At that firm, he practiced in a variety of areas, including complex litigation, class actions, and appellate litigation. His reported victories there spanned federal and state courts, including Clay v. Philip Morris Inc., 188 F.R.D. 483 (S.D. Ill. 1999); West Virginia-Ohio Valley Area I.B.E.W. Welfare Fund v. R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., 188 F.R.D. 425 (S.D.W. Va. 1999), Conway v. Royalite Plastics, Inc., 12 S.W. 3d 314 (Mo. 2001), and Fletcher v. Conoco Pipeline Co., 129 F. Supp. 2d 1255 (W.D. Mo. 2001), aff'd 323 F.3d 661 (8th Cir. 2003).

Mr. Jones graduated from University of Akron, cum laude, in 1991 with a Bachelor of Arts in Economics, and earned his law degree from DePaul University in 1996. Mr. Jones is a member of the state bars of Florida, New York, Illinois, Georgia, and Missouri. He is also admitted to practice before the Southern, Middle, and Northern Districts of Florida, Southern and Eastern Districts of New York, Southern and Northern Districts of Illinois, Northern District of Georgia, Eastern District of Missouri, and the Second, Fifth, Eighth, Ninth, and Eleventh Circuit Courts of Appeal.
